

LOVE HARD

Synopsis:

A work of docu-portraiture exploring the intimacy of BDSM. Drawing connections between kink and art, peak performances, extreme sports, and the washing up, LOVE HARD saturates grey shades with a deeply chromatic, lovingly brutal imagescape and a rich philosophical and humanistic engagement.

Alternate synopsis:

LOVE HARD is a work of docu-portraiture about BDSM and intimacy. In its inquiry into the loves and lives of 5 subjects, it presents thoughtful and compelling perspectives on how kink can function in our lives: as a practice of art or intimacy, a mode of expression or release, an iteration or obliteration of self, a way to play, to fuck, to love, to be ordinary.

Directed by Sensate Films, Australia (sensatefilms.com)

TECHNICAL DETAILS:

Year of Production: 2014

Running time: 46:00

Aspect ration: Widescreen

Full color

Language: English spoken

Director bio:

Sensate Films produce premium-quality erotic media for web, screen, and print. Their work values process over product, aesthetic reverence for diverse forms of human intimacy, and hybridized modes of storytelling - blending fantasy with documentary, the self-conscious with the unconscious, and the many shapes of the 'real'. More at sensatefilms.com.